"Wendy Anderson will be an excellent Regent for the University of Michigan," said Michigan Chamber President & CEO James Barrett. "Her commitment to higher education, her community service and her experience in government and politics, make her the best candidate for the job."

"Job providers here and across the state look to the Michigan Chamber as a leading voice on business issues," said Anderson. "I am pleased to receive their endorsement and their confidence."

The Michigan Chamber of Commerce represents approximately 7,000 businesses, local chambers of commerce, and trade associations. With members of every size and type in all 83 Michigan counties, the Michigan Chamber represents a broad cross-section of the state's economy.
