The Michigan Chamber of Commerce today announced its support for legislation that was introduced in the Michigan House by State Representative Ken Horn (R-Saginaw) to replace Michigan's burdensome and complicated Single Business Tax (SBT).

"For over 30 years, Michigan's SBT has been a litigation magnet and a drag on Michigan's business climate," said Michigan Chamber President & CEO Jim Barrett. "We are very encouraged that a proactive lawmaker like Ken Horn has taken the initiative to introduce a comprehensive plan to replace the SBT and provide meaningful personal property tax relief to all of Michigan's job providers."

"House Bill 4546, which has 30 co-sponsors in the State House, would replace the SBT with a broad-based business income tax and business license tax based on gross receipts. These provisions clearly address the need to replace the SBT in a timely manner with business taxes that are straightforward and commonly found in other states," said Tricia Kinley, Director of Tax Policy & Economic Development for the Michigan Chamber.

"Another positive aspect of House Bill 4546 is that it would replace over three quarters of the revenue currently generated by the SBT while providing Michigan's job providers with about $500 million in much needed tax relief," Kinley added.

"The good news for employers is that there is one plan to replace the SBT and provide meaningful personal property tax relief that was developed by business leaders," noted Kinley. In addition, a Senate version of the bill (Senate Bill 151) was introduced last month by State Senator Jud Gilbert (R- Algonac). Both bills have been endorsed by several local chambers of commerce.

"In addition to working with Representative Horn and Senator Gilbert to develop this plan, the Michigan Chamber has identified $500 million to $1 billion in cost-saving reform measures that can be enacted as part of a comprehensive effort to restructure both state government and business taxes," Kinley continued.

"We encourage employers across the state to support Representative Horn's proposal and we urge lawmakers to move forward promptly to resolve this key issue. We believe a fair and balanced replacement for the SBT can and should be signed into law by the end of April 2007," Barrett concluded.
