

Local Businesses and Coalition to Protect Overtime to Hold Press Conferences in Jackson and Ft. Gratiot on July 24

PRNewswire

WHAT: Coalition calls on Governor Granholm and state legislators to work cooperatively to approve House Bill 6213, legislation to protect Michigan workers' income, flexibility and freedom in workers' schedules, and help Michigan job providers remain competitive with out-of-state companies.

WHO: Local employers and employees and members of the Coalition to Protect Overtime & Other FLSA Exemptions

WHEN: Monday, July 24, 2006

WHERE: Larry's RV, 2501 Lansing Ave., Jackson, Michigan at 9:30 a.m.

Moran Automotive, 4511 24th Ave., Ft. Gratiot, Michigan at 2:30 p.m.

WHY: Failing to pass remedial legislation to protect federal overtime and other Fair Labor Standards Act (FLSA) exemptions without immediate effect prior to the legislative summer recess would leave Michigan businesses and employees in panic mode, wondering whether they will need to eliminate jobs, reduce workers' hours or benefits, or even close their doors because they will no longer be able to compete with out-of-state competitors come fall. Without Governor Granholm's signature and legislation in place by October 1, 2006, over 370,000 Michigan jobs will be put at risk, including high-paying jobs in hospitals, the trucking industry, auto, boat and RV dealerships, retail sales, IT and many other industries.
