2020 Michigan Economic Forecast Forum To Be Held January 9 In East Lansing

LANSING, Mich., Nov. 19, 2019 /PRNewswire/ -- The 2020 Michigan Economic Forecast Forum will be held on January 9 at the Kellogg Center in East Lansing. Hosted by the Michigan Bankers Association and the Michigan Chamber Foundation, the forum will feature economic experts who will provide bankers, business and community leaders a first look at Michigan's economy in the year ahead.

"As business leaders, we all have a stake in the growth of the local and state economy," stated TRann Paynter, President and CEO of the Michigan Bankers Association. "The Michigan Economic Forecast Forum will provide attendees with a broader and clearer understanding of Michigan's economic outlook – and that's what every business leader needs to spark new economic growth in our communities and across our great state."

The forum will include keynote speakers:

- Martin Lavelle, Business Economist, Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago-Detroit Branch
- Rachael Eubanks, State Treasurer
- Jeff Guilfoyle, Chief Deputy Treasurer

"Michigan job creators play a vital role in guiding the state's economy towards a strong and healthy future," said Rich Studley, President & CEO of Michigan Chamber of Commerce. "We are pleased to co-host this high-level educational and networking event as part of our mission to promote sustained economic prosperity for all Michiganders."
