Michigan Chamber Endorses John James For U.S. Senate And Several Business-Friendly Candidates For U.S. House Of Representatives.

LANSING, Mich., July 9, 2020 /PRNewswire/ -- The Michigan Chamber of Commerce today announced its endorsement of John James for U.S. Senate. The Chamber also announced endorsements of several business-friendly members of the U.S. House of Representatives seeking re-election in November.

"Leadership matters in both the public sector and the private sector," noted Michigan Chamber President & CEO Rich Studley. "Michigan needs better and stronger leadership in the U.S. Senate, and that is why I am pleased to announce the Michigan Chamber's endorsement of John James for the U.S. Senate."

"James is an entrepreneur who is passionate about our state and country and he will be a dynamic, energetic and effective leader in the U.S. Senate," Studley added.

"John James has a proven record of success leading his family's business and a distinguished military career serving our country in Iraq as a Ranger-qualified aviation officer," said Jim Holcomb, Senior Executive Vice President & General Counsel for the Michigan Chamber. "James' background, personality and leadership are what our Country needs during these challenging times."

The Michigan Chamber today also announced endorsements of several business-friendly members of the U.S. House seeking re-election in November.

"The Chamber's endorsements for the U.S. House go to incumbents who have a proven track-record on key economic issues important to job providers and their employees," said Studley. "These Chamber-endorsed candidates also have a strong voting record with the U.S. Chamber."

"The candidates we're endorsing for re-election understand the importance of advancing common-sense policies based on personal responsibility, limited government and free enterprise," said Holcomb.

Following is a rundown of the Michigan Chamber's endorsements for U.S. House of Representatives:

District 1	Rep. Jack Bergman (R)
District 2	Rep. Bill Huizenga (R)
District 4	Rep. John Moolenaar (R)
District 6	Rep. Fred Upton (R)
District 7	Rep. Tim Walberg (R)
