"The Chamber of Commerce Committee of 100 is one of the most prestigious appointments in the chamber community," said Bill Miller, senior vice president of Political Affairs and Federation Relations at the U.S. Chamber of Commerce. "This selection reflects our commitment to naming diverse, high-profile leaders to serve on this important committee."

The CCC100 is comprised of the country's leading chamber chief staff executives. These experienced leaders provide advice to the U.S. Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors; enhance Chamber lobbying and coalition work; recommend programming; and strengthen outreach to the business and chamber community.

The group includes a diverse combination of men and women from throughout the United States representing chambers of all sizes. Additional members of the Chamber of Commerce Committee of 100 can be found at www.uschamber.com/chambers/ccc.

The U.S. Chamber of Commerce is the world's largest business federation representing more than three million businesses and organizations of every size, sector, and region.
