"Brian Palmer is a candidate of the highest quality," said Michigan Chamber President & CEO Jim Barrett. "He is pro business, pro jobs and pro taxpayer. His position on the issues combined with his experience in business and politics will make him a great State Representative."

There is a vacancy in the 32nd House seat due to the election of former State Representative Alan Sanborn to the State Senate.

Mr. Palmer emerged victorious from a field of eight candidates in the January 29th Special Primary Election. The Special General Election will be held on February 26th.

The 32nd House District includes the townships of Armada, Bruce, Ray, Richmond, Shelby and Washington and the cities of Richmond and Utica and a portion of Memphis in northwest Macomb County.

"Job providers here and across the State look to the Michigan Chamber as a leading voice on business issues," said Brian Palmer. "I am pleased to have their endorsement and confidence."

The Michigan Chamber is a statewide business organization representing approximately 7,000 employers, trade associations and local chambers of commerce. The Michigan Chamber was established in 1959 to be an advocate for Michigan's job providers in the legislative, political and legal process.
